City School Notes

STORY HOUR

The Story Hour was conducted by Rev. R. J. Craig, the "new" Methodist pastor this week and was greatly enjoyed by all who heard him. He chose a story from Tolstol—a charming story of "How a Russian Shoemaker Saw Jesus" told in a charming manner.

The Story Tellers' League will be delighted to add Rev. and Mrs. Craig to their roll of members. Bro. Craig having already proven himself to be a gifted story teller and child entertainer.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association took place Friday afternoon in Miss Selby's room at Grammar School, with the president, Mrs. Walter Carlen, presiding.

It was decided at this meeting to hold a call meeting Saturday afternoon, the 13th, at the home of the president, and all members are urged to be present promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. M. Shanks, Sec.

GOOD ROADS DAYS

The citizens of Cookeville, Double Springs and along the road between the two towns had two good roads days last week during which they practically rebuilt most of the pike. The work was voluntary, and the good women furnished a fine dinner for the workers each day. As soon as the material is ready another day will be enjoyed—that is the proper word—enjoyed—because the spirit of good roads is so strong in Putnam county that our people make a holiday out of the opportunity to put a section of road in repair. Other stretches of road will be attended to from time to time.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The W. M. S. met with Mrs. W. O. Watson on Monday afternoon. Several members responded to roll call with scripture verses. The Bible lesson was: John 15—Mutual Love—read by Mrs. Gibbs. Prayer by Mrs. Dowell. Some business matters were discussed and committees appointed.

As next week will be observed as the week of prayer, arrangements were made for same. Each afternoon next week at 2:30, the society will meet at the parsonage. All the ladies of the church, and also all others are most cordially invited to attend these meetings.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments which were much enjoyed by all.

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE

On Monday, Oct. 11, 1915, the dear angel visited the home of Mr. Alex Lee and claimed for its victim his loving companion, Mrs. Lean Lee.

She was a true christian woman and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves a husband, two sweet girls and a host of warm friends to mourn their loss. It is sad to part with one whom we had learned to love so dearly. Words cannot express how we miss her, but we know she has gone to rest. Her spirit took its flight from this world to the mansions above that Jesus prepared for her, and all those who prove faithful. Lean was an excellent singer, having possessed a talent for singing which she well-improved. None can fill her vacant seat. It was in the church choir that I learned to love her. I have often thought she had the sweetest voice for music I ever heard, but her sweet voice will be heard with us no more here. I can only say to the bereaved and lonely ones, be faithful a few more years and you can meet your dearest one and many others who have gone on. This is a great consolation—our loss is her great gain.

She's far removed from pain and care
In climes more fair than this
Her soul is safely resting in—
The world of perfect bliss.

There's in a home, a vacant chair,
In loving hearts a wound.
We'll miss so much that precious form
That sleeps beneath the sod.

Our broken hearts cry out to Him
To lead thro' trouble's night;
And now we hear the whisper sweet
"God doeth all things right."

We call it death to leave this world
So full of sin and strife.
But 'tis the entrance into joy—
The entering into life.

Thank God we parted not as those
Who have no future hope;
Thro' Christ, who conquers every foe
Some day that tomb will open.

And she will rise triumphantly,
The victor's song to sing—
"O grave, where is thy sting?"
"O death, where is thy sting?"

REMEMBER GOOD ROADS DAY!

Next Tuesday, Nov. 16, Between Cookeville and Double Springs

Let everybody turn out with wagons and teams and let us finish putting gravel on this piece of road. Let us prepare this road by Christmas and we are practically assured that the Memphis to Bristol Highway Commission will accept it as the official route it can be done in only a few days work. Let us do it.

Good Roads Committee.

THE O. E. S. BANQUET

One of the most elaborate banquets ever given in Cookeville was that of the Eastern Star in the lodge hall on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 4.

The hall was beautifully draped in Eastern Star colors and the altars were covered with magnificent ferns. The menu was as follows:

Bulgarian Tea
Celery Oyster Cocktails
Roast Turkey Cranberry Sauce
Oyster Dressing
Baked Ham Creamed Potatoes
Mint Jelly
Candied Sweet Potato Creole Spaghetti
Pineapple Pimento, Vegetable Salad
Brick Ice Cream White Fruit Cake
Cheese Straws
Coffee

Visitors in attendance from surrounding towns were: Frank Gailbreath and wife, and Harland Reeves and wife, of Gainesboro; Jap Holladay and wife of Nashville; Dr. J. T. Moore and Dr. W. A. Howard and wife of Algood. Plates were set for 90 and it was a most enjoyable occasion to all.

Toastmaster J. N. Cox called upon various parties for speeches and much talk was indulged in. Among the after dinner speakers present and responding to the call were Col. S. B. Anderson, Hon. Thos. Finley, Esq. J. R. Douglass, Prof. Sam Jared, Jere B. Barnes, and following the gentlemen came pleasing responses from the worthy ladies who had labored so faithfully for the success of the banquet, who deserve much credit for their efforts to revive Masonic gatherings of this kind in Cookeville, and it is to be hoped that many banquets will follow this one by the Masonic orders.

The ladies who deserve much credit for this gathering are: Mrs. J. C. Barnes, Mrs. James Quarles, Mrs. P. Y. Jared and Mrs. O. D. Massa.

SPARTA, ROUTE 8

Health is still very good in this community. Gathering corn seems to be the order of the day.

Edna Trapp has been very sick for some time, but is improving.

Julia Robinson spent Friday night with Mrs. Mollie Robinson.

Ma Robinson and Dinah Hale spent Saturday night with Alcie, Fannie and Pearl Bohannon, and reported a nice time.

Wamon McCormick spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Hattie Henry.

Julia and Hattie Henry spent Saturday night with Mary Lee McCormick, who said they saw Luther McC. swing Julia Henry last Sunday morning.

There is prayer meeting in Board Valley church house every Sunday night and also at Beech Grove every Wednesday night. Everybody invited to come.

Bowie Robinson, Oliver Clouse and Bob Bumbalough had a singing at "Weeley Clouse" last Saturday night.

Mrs. Alma Brown spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clouse.

Rev. Frank Henry is the pastor at Pleasant Ridge this year, and preaches every first Sunday.

Miss Pearl Brown has been visiting on Calkiller for the last week.

Two Lovers.

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, HAWAII

Dear Friends and Readers of the Herald—If the editor will spare me a little space in his paper, I will try and jot down a few lines from Hawaii.

I suppose this will be my last letter from Hawaii, as my time is getting rather short. I will sure make a bee-line for dear old Tennessee for I have found out that there isn't anything like Tennessee after all.

The last United States Infantry has been very busy with maneuvers and posing for moving pictures for the last two months. We are on a hike for 21 days soon and I guess it will be my last hike and I am not sorry, either. There is nothing definite about the war. There are times I think we will be in war before 24 hours passes, but we have a president who pulls us through safely.

Well, I had better stop, as I can't think of anything else for the present. So here is wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

McM. Judd,

Co. G, 1st Inf'ty., Schofield Barracks.

Bros. J. H. Pendergrass, Wade Busell and Tom Pippin were admitted and duly instructed in the 3rd degree. Bro. S. Pincus having been elected to membership in St. Charles Lodge at Nashville, was granted a transfer certificate.

The committee on the celebration of the 42d anniversary of the lodge, reported progress and upon motion, were granted further time.

Bro. Walter A. Wirt, of International Falls, Minn., has made a remittance, paying his dues into the next term. If all of the members would do likewise it would not only be a great benefit to the lodge, but to themselves also.

Let all attend the next meeting, business of importance.

JAMES S. HOLMAN

James S. Holman died suddenly Saturday, Oct. 30, at the home of his son, W. F. Holman five miles west of Cookeville. He was nearly 73 years of age, and leaves two sons and five daughters. Burial took place at the Stewart graveyard Sunday, Oct. 31.

As to his good character and worthy esteem of his neighbors, the following resolutions will speak:

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, he has pleased God to remove from the walks of life our dear brother, James S. Holman
